APRIL 2011 STUDENT OF THE MONTH

TY STEEDLEY

Ty is four years old and started karate here at The Karate University in August 2009. Ty is currently a blue belt. Since Ty has started karate we have noticed a HUGE improvement in him. He is not as shy as he used to be and not as timid when approaching someone else anymore. Ty has developed self confidence and gained respect for others. As parents it makes us happy to see Ty doing something that he loves and at the same time learning skills that he will use in everyday life.

Ty is a very active boy. He enjoys playing outside, riding his bike, riding his horse Zipper, fishing, playing baseball, and of course karate. Ty definitely keeps us busy but we wouldn't have it any other way. We are very proud of him and his accomplishments.

We would like to say thank you to Mr. Nuttall, Mr. Burlison, Mr. Michael, and Ms. Hamilton. Ty looks up to all of you. As parents we are thankful that Ty is in karate and that he has great instructors that are able to provide a positive influence not only on him but all the children here at The Karate University.

TESTIMONIALS / A & AB HONOR ROLL

Testimonial

Ruben & Isaiahs Gomez

Ruben & Isaiahs have been attending The Karate University for almost 1 year. They are both currently working very hard for their Blue Belt and to become a Youth Black Belt soon.

Karate blood runs in the family, Ruben & Isaiahs grandpa, father, uncle and cousins all have black belts. The boys are the family's 3rd generation in American Karate. Karate is more like hereditary and a tradition but, more than that for the boys it is passion! In this past year, I have seen a dramatic change in the boys behavior. The respect & discipline that the boys have now is amazing! I want to thank the entire staff at The Karate University for all they have done for Ruben and Isaiah Gomez.

Mr. & Mrs. Gomez
